

I travel between Baltimore and Philadelphia every week and it is great to hear what the traffic is like before I get there and I can't get this information before I start my trip any place other than XM radio. Local radio stations only work in local areas. XM Instant Traffic & Weather is a great service to the traveling public and it shouldn't be stopped.